Technical tests on anchor device type B and C according to DIN EN 795:2012 and DIN CEN/TS 16415:2017

Type: Lanyard, up to 30 m length

Dear Mr Pastuska,

We would like to inform you that the technical tests have been successfully carried out on the above mentioned anchor device.

During the tests, the anchor device arrested the test mass respectively held the test force for the required period of time.

Note:

This letter does not authorise the affixing of the CE marking to products conforming to the samples tested.

Kind regards

DEKRA Testing and Certification GmbH
